Questions:

Did you know the civil penalties for export license violations have been increased from $50,000 to $250,000 per violation and criminal penalties have been increased from 10 years to a 20 year maximum jail sentence? These penalties are for export violations in conjunction with the EAR (Export Administration Regulations). The BIS had a 1,692% increase in $$ dollar amount of criminal penalties last year, the average fine was $1,581,250. The average civil penalty was $80,000 and both civil and criminal are usually given in combination of one another. If you're a publicly traded company, did you know that all employees including officers of the company can and will be prosecuted under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, for knowing or should have known if your company was in compliance with export administrative regulations? If your company is not aware of what the export administration regulations are, or haven't taken a course of what might have changed, perhaps it is time to do so.
